Chapter III – Financial Provisions

Article 21 – Capital of the National Bank

1. The capital of the National Bank shall consist of the charter capital and the general reserve fund.
2. The charter capital of the National Bank shall be GEL 15 000 000.
3. The source of the growth of the National Bank charter capital shall be its net profits.

Article 22 – General reserve fund of the National Bank

1. The general reserve fund of the National Bank shall be formed from the annual net profits, according to the distribution provided in Article 25 of this Organic Law.
2. The general reserve fund of the National Bank may be used only to counteract the National Bank's net loss.
3. In order to facilitate the stability and transparency of the financial system, and sustainable economic growth in the country, the Board of the National Bank of Georgia shall be authorised to decide on the distribution of sums in the reserve fund.

Organic Law of Georgia No 2186 of 1 December 2009 – LHG I, No 40, 7.12.2009, Art., 287

Article 23 – Special reserves of the National Bank

1. By decision of the Board of the National Bank, the National Bank's net profits may be used to form:
 - a) a reserve for counteracting losses expected due to a change in the national currency exchange rate against foreign currencies;
 - b) a reserve for counteracting losses caused by a change in the price of assets;
 - c) other special reserves.
2. Special reserves shall be used for counteracting the respective loss.

Article 24 – Calculation of the net profits of the National Bank

The net profits of the National Bank for each financial year shall be calculated according to international accounting standards and financial reporting standards as the sum of net unrealised profit or loss, as a result of net operating profits or losses and revaluation. The net operating profit or loss shall be calculated by deducting operating expenses intended for conducting the main activity from the amount of income of the reporting year.

Article 25 – Distribution of the net profits of the National Bank

If the National Bank has net profits at the completion of a financial year, it shall be distributed in the following sequence:

- If net profits consist of net operating profits and net unrealised profits obtained as a result of revaluation, the unrealised profits obtained as a result of revaluation shall be transferred to the revaluation reserve. If net profits include revaluation of unrealised losses, it shall be compensated from the revaluation reserve account. If net profits consist of net operating losses and net unrealised profits obtained as a result of revaluation, net profits shall be transferred to the revaluation reserve.;
- The remaining amount of net profits shall be used to fill the general reserve fund of the National Bank, until its volume equals 15% of the amount of the reserve fund at the end of the financial year. The Board of the National Bank of Georgia shall be authorised to decide to use the remaining net profits to fill the general reserve fund of the National Bank, until its volume is less than 15% of the amount of the reserve fund at the end of the financial year.
- The remaining net profits for the financial year must be transferred to the account of the Ministry of Finance of Georgia within six months after completion of the financial year of the National Bank.

Organic Law of Georgia No 2186 of 1 December 2009 – LHG I, No 40, 7.12.2009, Art., 287

Article 26 – Distribution of net losses of the National Bank

1. If the National Bank incurs a net loss in any financial year, it shall be distributed as follows:

- If the net loss consists of net operating losses and net revaluation unrealised losses, the amount of net operating losses shall be added to the general reserve fund, and the amount of revaluation unrealised losses shall be distributed among the revaluation reserve accounts. If after such distribution the revaluation reserve accounts become negative, the negative balance shall be distributed to the general reserve fund.
- If a net loss consists of the sum of net operating profits and a greater net revaluation unrealised losses, the revaluation loss shall be compensated from the revaluation reserve accounts. The remaining losses shall be distributed to the general reserve fund.
- If the net loss consists of net operating losses and net revaluation unrealised profits, the losses shall be added to the general reserve fund.
- If after the above distribution the capital of the National Bank becomes smaller than the charter capital, in order to cover the deficit (to fill the charter capital of the National Bank) the Ministry of Finance of Georgia shall transfer to the ownership of the National Bank the circulating (market) government bearer bonds, under terms and conditions similar to those of other government securities.

2. The Ministry of Finance of Georgia shall unconditionally issue the securities defined by paragraph (1)(d) of this article, within five months after the completion of the financial year of the National Bank. After having been issued, these securities shall be reflected in the State Budget of Georgia.

Article 47⁸ – Authority of the National Bank in the field of promoting the creation of a competitive environment in the financial sector

1. The National Bank shall ensure compliance with requirements established by the Law of Georgia on Competition in the area provided for by this Law. In accordance with this Law and the Law of Georgia on Competition, the National Bank shall consider a complaint/application regarding a possible violation of competition by a representative of a financial sector (except for an obliged entity), by a lending entity or a credit information bureau, and a notification regarding concentration. The National Bank shall be guided by the Law of Georgia on Competition when considering a complaint/application on the possible violation of competition, and a notice on concentration, unless otherwise provided for by this Law. When making a decision on violation of competition, the National Bank will charge the violator of competition with the monetary fine provided for by the Law of Georgia on Competition. The National Bank shall be entitled to apply other sanctions and/or supervisory measures to the violator of a competition along with a monetary fine.

2. The National Bank shall be authorised to give priority to ensuring financial stability while ensuring compliance with the requirements established by the legislation of Georgia on competition.

3. The National Bank shall be authorised to issue legal acts in order to perform the functions provided for in the first paragraph of this article, including establishing threshold amounts – in case of exceeding them the notification on concentration shall be submitted to the National Bank in advance in written form – to implement relevant measures, to issue written instructions, to establish additional requirements, relevant restrictions and/or monetary penalties.

4. In case of application of the LEPL Georgian National Competition and Consumer Agency, the National Bank shall request information (including confidential information) from the entity specified in paragraph 1 of this article and transfer it to the Georgian National Competition and Consumer Agency.

Organic Law of Georgia No 3764 of 29 November 2023 – website, 11.12.2023

Article 48 – Supervisory powers of the National Bank

1. The National Bank has been granted full authority to supervise the activities of commercial banks, microbanks, banking groups, non-bank depository institutions, micro-finance organisations, independent securities registrars, brokerage companies (except for insurance brokerage companies), stock exchange, central depository, specialised depository, asset management companies, obliged entities, Pension Fund, foreign currency exchange offices, investment funds, authorised securitisation special purpose entities, payment system operators, payment service providers, credit information bureaus, loan holder entities and virtual asset service provider on the basis of this Law and other legal acts.

1¹) The National Bank shall supervise the fulfilment of obligations determined by Article 19(1) and (2), Article 21(1-4), Article 23(1-4) and Articles 24 and 26 of the Law of Georgia on Transformation into Securities by the unauthorised securitisation special purpose entity provided for by the same Law, the institutional investor, the initial creditor and initiator registered in Georgia (except for an insurance organisation licensed in accordance with the Law of Georgia on Insurance).

2. (Deleted – 23.12.2018, No 1894).

3. To perform supervisory duties, the National Bank shall be authorised to issue appropriate decrees and orders, implement relevant measures, give written instructions, set additional requirements and limitations, apply supervisory measures and/or sanctions.

4. Except for the grounds provided for by the legislation of Georgia, the National Bank shall also be authorised to refuse a person registration as, granting a licence, authorization, recognition of a subject under paragraph 1 of this article, or acquisition of a significant share of a subject under the same article in the case provided for by the legislation of Georgia, if:

- a) the registration of a person as a subject, granting a licence, authorisation, recognition to a person or the acquisition of a significant share of a subject by a person may pose a threat to the stability of the Georgian financial sector;
- b) the registration of a person as a subject, licensing, authorisation, recognition of a person or the acquisition of a significant share of a subject by a person may cause the violation and/or non-fulfilment of the requirements provided under the compulsory decisions and/or recommendations of international organisations;
- c) the registration of a person as a subject, licensing, authorisation, recognition of a person or the acquisition of a significant share of a subject by a person may cause the breach of an agreement signed between Georgia and a foreign country;
- d) an interested person failed upon request of the National Bank to submit to the National Bank full information on the origin of funds necessary to comply with minimum capital requirements set under the legislation of Georgia for commencing a subject's activity, or to acquire a significant share in the cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia;
- e) based on information available for the National Bank, an interested person (a subject, an administrator, a holder of a significant share, a beneficial owner) violates the entrepreneurial, banking and/or financial legislation, and/or carries out such business practice that poses or may pose a threat to healthy functioning of a particular subject and/or the financial sector;
- f) the structure of the group of an interested legal person, the structure of ownership and the governance structure, and/or the banking activities/environment are not transparent enough, which may impede the implementation of effective individual or consolidated supervision, and/or may pose a threat to the stability and healthy functioning of the financial sector.

4¹. The National Bank shall be entitled to:

- a) request and obtain information from an entity subject to supervision on the origin of funds of an entity subject to supervision, the ownership structure, direct owners of a significant share, and on beneficial owners (including on the origin of property and/or financial resources) in accordance with the legislation of Georgia on facilitating the prevention of money laundering and the financing of terrorism;
- b) in the case of violation of the legislation of Georgia on facilitating the prevention of money laundering and the financing of terrorism, cease or limit certain type of operations, impose a ban on the distribution of profits, accrual and issuance of dividends, the increase of remuneration, the issuance of premiums and other similar payments, impose monetary fines, cancel registration, authorisation, recognition and deprivation of a licence in relation to an entity subject to supervision;
- c) in the case of violation of the legislation of Georgia on facilitating the prevention of money laundering and the financing of terrorism, suspend the right to sign in relation to the administrators of an entity subject to supervision, impose monetary fines, and request their dismissal;

d) provide an entity subject to supervision with a list of those persons whose activities involve or may involve the risk of money laundering or the financing of terrorism in accordance with the legislation of Georgia on facilitating the prevention of money laundering and the financing of terrorism;

e) in the case of failure to submit requested information within the determined time frame, or if requested information is submitted incompletely, impose sanction on an entity subject to supervision in accordance with the legislation of Georgia on facilitating the prevention of money laundering and the financing of terrorism.

4². For the purposes of preventing and combatting money laundering and the financing of terrorism, the National Bank shall supervise the activities of an entity subject to supervision on the basis of the risk-based approach.

4³. The information regarding sanctions imposed by the National Bank shall be published on the official website of the National Bank in accordance with the procedure established by the National Bank.

4⁴. The National Bank shall be authorised to publish on the official website of the National Bank the information on the sanctions imposed by the National Bank because of the violation of the requirements of legislation on securities in the manner established by the National Bank.

5. To perform supervisory functions, the National Bank shall be authorised to request and receive, within its authority, any information (including confidential information) from persons defined in paragraph 1 of this article.

6. To facilitate the prevention of money laundering and the financing of terrorism, the National Bank shall be authorised to cooperate with local supervisory and law enforcement bodies.

7. This Law, the Law of Georgia on Commercial Bank Activities, the Law of Georgia on Activities of Microbanks or a normative act of the National Bank may determine the terms and conditions for the use of an electronic document and an electronic signature (including the electronic documents and electronic signatures that are different from those determined by the Law of Georgia on Electronic Documents and Electronic Trust Services) differently from the Law of Georgia on Electronic Documents and Electronic Trust Services, and their legal force.

8. The National Bank shall be authorised to receive, from the subject of supervision, a document sent in accordance with the procedures established by the National Bank and/or an electronic document with a qualified electronic signature. The issue of use of the qualified electronic signature shall be regulated under an agreement signed between the National Bank and the subject of supervision.

9. If a material and/or an electronic document cannot be delivered to the subject of supervision, the Head of the National Bank or Vice-president of the National Bank may decide to publicly disseminate an official document. The official document shall be publicly disseminated by publishing it on the official website of the National Bank. A public notice shall be deemed delivered on the 15th day after it has been publicly disseminated.

10. The subjects provided for by paragraph 1 of this article shall have the right to prepare and submit to the National Bank for approval the security policy of the use of the electronic signature while rendering services. During the rendering of particular services agreed with the National Bank, the electronic signature used during the rendering of services on the basis of the security policy for the use of the electronic signature while rendering services, shall have the legal force which is equal to the personal signature on the tangible document. The electronic document certified by the said electronic signature may be used in all cases, where the tangible form of a document is required by the legislation of Georgia.

11. If a subject intends to use the electronic signature and the legal force of such signature is acknowledged on the basis of law, but the security policy for the use of such signature has not been agreed with the National Bank, the subject shall send a prior notification to the National Bank with regard to the use of such electronic signature.

12. The National Bank shall be authorised to establish for a representative of the financial sector and lending entity procedures for protecting consumers when providing services (including the procedure for the provision of necessary information to consumers).

13. The National Bank shall be authorised to publish a draft normative act of the National Bank in relation to the financial sector for obtaining comments from interested parties before its approval. Such requirement shall not apply to a draft normative act, which needs to be adopted for maintaining the stability of the financial sector and/or for resolution purposes and/or which shall be immediately put into force.

14. The National Bank shall be authorised to provide any information (including confidential information) directly or indirectly related to subjects provided for by paragraph 1 of this article to evaluator and auditor (an auditing company) of the said subjects. Such authority shall be exercised by the National Bank for the purpose of facilitating the proper meeting of supervisory requirements and/or resolution requirements and/or for making assessment as well as within the framework of exercising resolution powers. No one shall have the right to require from the National Bank to provide information determined by this paragraph. Any provision/non-provision of information by the National Bank as provided for by this paragraph shall not become the basis for the improper fulfilment of evaluation by an evaluator or audit by an auditor (an audit company) of the said subjects. An evaluator and auditor (an audit company) is obliged to keep the confidentiality of information retrieved from the National Bank, except for the cases provided for by law.

15. The National Bank shall be authorised to implement appropriate measures provided for by the Law of Georgia on Financial Collateral Agreement, Mutual Offset and Derivatives, including the issuance of the legal acts, giving written directions, establishing additional requirements, relevant restrictions and/or sanctions.

16. In the special case when a supervised entity does not have funds to cover the liquidation costs, the National Bank shall have the right to issue the amount necessary for the smooth conduct of the liquidation process of a supervised entity, which shall be satisfied in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia. The National Bank shall establish rules for issuing and satisfying the said amount.

17. The National Bank shall be authorised to implement powers provided for by the Law of Georgia on Voluntary Private Pension, supervisory measures, and/or relevant activities and, inter alia, to make decision on the termination of powers of a specialised depository to serve one or more than one pension scheme, to issue legal acts, introduce additional requirements and/or relevant limitations. For the purposes of the Law of Georgia on Voluntary Private Pension, the National Bank shall cooperate with the LEPL Insurance State Supervision Service of Georgia. The above cooperation may include the exchange of information (including confidential information).

This subparagraph shall not apply to secured liabilities (including liabilities of creditors under the programme provided for by the Law of Georgia on Mortgage-Backed Bonds).
- o) in accordance with the procedures established by the legislation of Georgia, to request the compensation for damage, including obtained premium, variable remuneration or similar income, from the shareholder, administrator or other employee whose actions harmed a commercial bank;
- p) except for the action/deal carried out on the basis of the Law of Georgia on Financial Collateral Agreement and except for the action/deal related to the programme provided for by the Law of Georgia on Mortgage-Backed Bonds, Mutual Offset and Derivatives, by applying to the court, to challenge the action or transaction of an administrator of a commercial bank during 1 year prior to application of the resolution mode and request its voidness if, as a result, the person concerned received material benefits at the expense of a commercial bank or enjoyed any advantage, privilege or benefit that harmed a commercial bank or its creditors;
- q) for the purpose of the effective resolution, to enter into agreement with an independent auditor, evaluator, lawyer, accountant, consultant and/or other person at the expense of a commercial bank. The National Bank shall cover the costs of the services rendered by this person before the application of the resolution mode;
- r) to take all necessary measures for the effective management of an interim bank, develop instructions for the plan of withdrawal from the market of an interim bank and agree with the developed plan;
- s) to issue a legal act on the application of the resolution-related requirements established by this Law to a branch of a foreign bank;
- t) to issue legal acts for the purpose of exercising powers provided for by this paragraph.

2. The National Bank shall, for the purpose of resolution, be authorised to exercise resolution powers determined by this Law and the Law of Georgia on Commercial Bank Activities jointly or individually, taking into account specific conditions characteristic to each case.
 3. Notwithstanding the requirements established by the legislation of Georgia and the founding documents of a commercial bank, and procedures established by agreements and emission prospect, the National Bank and a special manager appointed by the National Bank shall exercise resolution powers without a consent of shareholders, creditors and debtors of a commercial bank/interim bank. This rule shall also apply to the requirements of the approval of notification, issuance, the registration of document and emission prospect by the National bank and other requirements established by the legislation of Georgia.
 4. For the purpose of ensuring the principle of continuity of critical functions of a commercial bank, any third person providing critical service to a commercial bank, on the request of the National Bank, shall be obliged to continue providing this service with the same condition to a commercial bank in the resolution mode, to its successor in title, as well as to the purchaser of a commercial bank and/or an interim bank on the basis of the decision of the National Bank. For this purpose, the National Bank may provide the services of the third person to a purchaser or successor bank or an interim bank on the expenses of a commercial bank.
 5. The National Bank shall, for resolution purposes, be authorised to change founding documents/statute of a commercial bank and request the registration authority to register these changes. The registration authority shall comply with this requirement immediately.
 6. The expedited/simplified procedure shall apply if, for the resolution purpose, there is a necessity of the withdrawal of shares or securities from the stock exchange/temporary suspension of the securities on the stock exchange, allowing new shares on the stock exchange, re-admission of the securities reduced to zero to the stock exchange or giving a consent on purchasing a significant share. By the decision of the National Bank, the requirements for disclosure and reporting provided for by the Law of Georgia on Securities Market may not be observed or delayed for a certain period of time.

Article 55⁴ – Temporary state financing

1. For the purpose of financing the resolution process, the Ministry of Finance of Georgia shall provide temporary state financing if this is necessary for ensuring the stability of a financial system, if the funds accumulated within the frameworks of preliminary contributions made into the Resolution Fund by the commercial banks and branches of foreign banks licensed in Georgia is not/will not be enough, or it is impossible to find a non-state financing source or this financing is not/will not be enough. The temporary state financing shall be provided after the shareholders and the creditors determined by Article 37¹²(10²)(k-p) of the Law of Georgia on Commercial Bank Activities receive first loss in the reverse order of satisfaction of the requirements set for the liquidation of the commercial bank, taking into account resolution purposes and principles.
2. The National Bank shall refer to the Ministry of Finance of Georgia with the request of temporary state financing determined by paragraph 1 of this article. This requirement shall include the review of the planned resolution tools to be applied and the substantiation of the necessity of temporary state financing, including the amount, form and terms of financing with consideration of the resolution purposes and principles determined by the legislation of Georgia.
3. If the Ministry of Finance of Georgia agrees with the requirement established by paragraph 2 of this article, it shall provide temporary state financing in one or more of the following forms:
 - a) participation in the capital of an interim bank;
 - b) purchasing of a share of a commercial bank in the resolution mode or taking the liabilities arisen from the supervisory capital instruments of a commercial bank;

- c) allocation of funds in favour of the Resolution Fund in accordance with the procedure established by Article 55 of this article;
- d) issuance of loan and/or guarantee and/or financing in a required form for resolution purposes, including direct financing.
4. If the Ministry of Finance of Georgia, directly or indirectly, purchases a share in a commercial bank, it shall take all measures in order to manage a commercial bank in an adequate and professional manner. After purchasing shares and other supervisory capital instruments of a commercial bank by the Ministry of Finance of Georgia, a commercial bank shall be obliged to develop an action plan containing the measures necessary for a financial stability of a commercial bank in a long-term period which shall be approved by the National Bank.
5. The procedure for issuing temporary state financing shall be determined by a joint legal act of the National Bank and the Ministry of Finance of Georgia.
6. The National Bank and the Ministry of Finance of Georgia shall, within the framework of the temporary state financing, for the purpose of the compensation of the allocated funds, determine for commercial banks licensed in Georgia and branches of foreign banks the obligation of making contributions by the transfer into the Resolution Fund. The above contributions shall be determined for each commercial bank and the branch of a foreign bank on the basis of objective and proportional criteria. The proportionality criteria concern the implementation of those contribution obligations proportionally which do not involve the obligations which are simultaneously the supervisory capital instruments or insured deposit. The objective criteria involve the risk profile of a commercial bank.
7. The criteria provided for by paragraph 6 of this article for imposing contribution and its implementation shall be determined by the joint legal act of the Ministry of Finance of Georgia and the National Bank which among other issues shall establish the grounds for imposing a contribution, exceptions, risk profile details, the upper limit of contribution, its periodicity and term. The upper limit of a contribution shall be determined with consideration of the principle that the contribution does not pose a threat on the liquidity or solvency of a commercial bank.

Article 55⁵ – Resolution Fund

1. For the purpose of effective resolution the National Bank shall open a bank account – the Resolution Fund – determined by Article 32 of this Law.
2. The National Bank shall determine the obligation for the commercial banks licensed in Georgia and branches of foreign banks to make preliminary contributions into the Resolution Fund. The above preliminary contribution shall be determined for each commercial bank licensed in Georgia and the branch of a foreign bank on the basis of objective and proportional criteria. The proportionality criteria concern the implementation of those preliminary contribution obligations proportionally which do not involve the obligations which are simultaneously the supervisory capital instruments or insured deposit. The objective criteria involve the risk profile of a commercial bank.
3. The criteria for imposing the preliminary contribution and the procedure for its implementation shall be determined by the legal act of the President of the National Bank which, among other issues, shall establish the grounds for imposing the preliminary contribution, exceptions, risk profile details, the upper limit of preliminary contribution, its periodicity and term. The upper limit of the preliminary contribution shall be determined with consideration of the principle that the preliminary contribution does not pose a threat on the liquidity or solvency of a commercial bank.
4. The Resolution Fund includes preliminary contributions made by commercial banks licensed in Georgia and branches of foreign banks, in the case of temporary state financing – the contributions made with a view to further reimbursement of funds allocated within the frameworks of the above financing, loans, guarantees and grants to be issued by the Ministry of Finance of Georgia, income received through investment activities carried out by the Resolution Fund, as well as funds received from other sources within the limits set by the State Budget Law of Georgia. The guarantee issued by the Ministry of Finance of Georgia may be used to secure the liabilities of the Resolution Fund.
5. The funds transferred into the Resolution Fund may be used, inter alia, within the framework of temporary state financing, on the commercial banks and interim banks under resolution mode in case of issuance of loans and guarantees, the alienation of shares, assets and/or liabilities of a commercial bank or the application of the instruments of an interim bank, for remuneration of difference between the transferred liabilities and assets, or for the purposes of Article 37¹⁰(12) of the Law of Georgia on Commercial Bank Activities and/or Article 37¹¹(4) of the same Law. Where appropriate, loans and/or guarantees may be issued within the framework of application of the resolution instrument for alienation or merger of shares, assets and/or liabilities of a commercial bank to the purchaser of shares, assets and/or liabilities of a commercial bank. The funds transferred into the Resolution Fund may also be used for the improvement of liquidity of a commercial bank under resolution mode, or for covering expenses related to the process of resolution, including the administration of the Resolution Fund and the preparation of an audited financial statement.
6. The National Bank shall be authorised to temporarily suspend the obligation of a commercial bank licensed in Georgia, a branch of a foreign bank to make preliminary contributions into the Resolution Fund if the commercial bank, the branch of a foreign bank makes contributions, until the full coverage of financing, into the Resolution Fund for the purpose of further remuneration of funds used within temporary state financing.

7. The funds accumulated as a result of preliminary contributions made into the Resolution Fund by the commercial banks licensed in Georgia and branches of foreign banks shall reach the target amount of the Resolution Fund, which equals 3% of total amount of insured deposits determined by the Law of Georgia on Deposits Insurance System.

8. The commercial bank licensed in Georgia and a branch of a foreign bank shall make preliminary contributions into the Resolution Fund in accordance with the legal act provided for by the President of the National Bank every month, not later than the 15th day of the following month.

9. The National Bank shall administer the Resolution Fund. The National Bank shall be authorised to transfer the Resolution Fund for administration to the LEPL Deposit Insurance Agency. The National Bank and the LEPL Deposit Insurance Agency shall not be responsible for obligations originated from the usage of the Resolution Fund. The application of restrictions provided for by the legislation of Georgia, including pledges, collateral agreement and/or enforcement, against the assets of the Resolution Fund shall be inadmissible.

10. The National Bank shall be obliged to prepare the financial report of the Resolution Fund independently from the financial report of the National Bank. The financial report of the Resolution Fund shall be examined by an independent auditor. The value of the assets of the Resolution Fund shall be recorded in compliance with the international financial reporting standards.

11. The matters of the establishment of the Resolution Fund and the administration of funds accumulated as a result of preliminary contributions made into the Resolution Fund shall be determined by the legal act of the President of the National Bank provided for by paragraph 3 of this article. The above legal act may also determine the matter of investment of funds accumulated as a result of preliminary contributions made into the Resolution Fund; as for the matters of temporary state financing, as well as the administration and investment of contributions made into the Resolution Fund with a view to further remuneration of funds used within the framework of temporary state financing, they shall be determined by a joint legal act provided for by Article 55⁴(5) of this Law. The above joint legal act may also determine the procedure for receiving consent necessary for certain transactions, for establishing the reporting requirements, and withdrawing the relevant funds by the Ministry of Finance of Georgia.

12. In case of administration of the Resolution Fund by the LEPL Deposit Insurance Agency, the National Bank shall be authorised to request and receive from the Agency any (including confidential) information regarding the Resolution Fund.

Article 68 – Administration standards

1. The National Bank shall exercise powers granted to it under this Law on the basis of the principles of equality and impartiality and in compliance with accepted administration standards.

2. The National Bank shall refrain from using the powers specified in paragraph (1) of this article to achieve such a goal that is not in line with these powers, or shall exercise its rights to the extent exceeding the necessary measures to achieve a respective legitimate goal.

3. To fulfil the provisions of this Law, the decisions of the National Bank shall be subject to the principles of impartiality. Their motivation must be objective and rational. All decisions shall be executed in compliance with legal standards and shall serve the goals set.

4. If an individual administrative-legal act of the National Bank is being appealed to court, the plaintiff shall bear the burden of proof according to Article 17(2) of the Administrative Procedures Code of Georgia.

5. If an administrative act of the National Bank is being appealed to court, the effect of such administrative act may not be suspended until the final judgement on appeal is made, unless otherwise decided by the National Bank.

5¹. When appealing a decision of the National Bank, the court relies on qualitative and quantitative evaluations made by the National Bank, except where the evaluation contains a clear error/deficiency.

5. By the decision of the National Bank, after the application of the resolution mode, if the decisions made by the National Bank during the resolution mode or the decision of the cancellation of banking licence are appealed in the court, when revoking this decision, the court may impose only the compensation of the actual damage on the National Bank that shall not be paid from the Resolution Fund.

6. No current or former employee of the National Bank shall be personally responsible for his/her act or inaction with regard to any person, if he/she performed this act or refrained from it in good faith, in the course of performing his/her duties, according to the legislation of Georgia. The National Bank shall be obliged, where an act or the refraining from carrying out such act by a current or a former employee is related to the performance of official duties, to protect the interests of an employee (except for the case where the dispute against an employee is initiated by the National Bank) in the dispute related to the performance of official duties, which may be reflected in rendering legal services to the employee, the compensation of expenses related to the dispute, and in other measures that may be deemed necessary by the National Bank for the protection of the interests of the employee. This paragraph shall apply to the temporary administrator, special manager, liquidator, the administrator of an interim bank, the administrator and liquidator of a programme provided for by the Law of Georgia on Mortgage-Backed Bonds only within the scope of the powers conferred by the National Bank.
